Aberdeen has 155 children of school age.

Mr. J. Morris Moran of Cincinnati is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Moran.

With a population of about 2,500, London, Ky., has thirty-three traveling salesmen on the road, whose combined salaries amount to over $40,000 a year.

Mrs. C. D. Russell is enjoying the excursion to Niagara Falls personally conducted by Mr. J. D. Wyatt. There were several hundred to leave on the trip.

Mrs. Kate Anderson of Paris, accompanied by her pretty little granddaughter, Miss Nanette Wallingford, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Russell in East Third street.

Councilman B. C. Farley and Robert Maddox of Aberdeen quarreled last night at that place. No serious damage. Both were arrested and taken before Mayor Hill who assessed small fines.

Among the number of Maysville's venerable and esteemed citizens is our good friend, Abe Pierce of Limestone street, who is still apt on his feet considering the weight of his eighty-three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickett Oldham, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Wheeler of West Second street for a week past, left this morning for Manchester where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Carroll.

Mr. C. C. Clark and family, together with a number of congenial friends, eighteen in all, of Ironton, O., are enjoying an outing on a pleasure boat as far down as Cincinnati. They stopped here this morning for several hours taking in the city.

Complaint has been made at Police headquarters about a number of colored women who are in the habit of gathering at the wharf-boat and on the grade every time a pocket lands at the wharf and by their talk and unseemly conduct have become a nuisance to those having business to transact at the landing. The matter has been placed in the hands of officer Sentensy and that the nuisance will be abated goes without saying.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. L. Stoker, he the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stoker of this city, and employed by the Bell Telephone Company of Cincinnati, lost by death one of their six-month-old twins last week. Mr. Stoker attended the funeral. The fellow-workman of Ed. rallied to his comfort in a sympathetic and practical way. They thronged to his home and in addition to comforting words and kind expressions gave him a purse of $21 in gold. It is this beautiful conduct that makes possible the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God. Truly a little touch of sorrow makes the whole world kin, but why must one wait until sorrow comes?

SOMETHING DOING

At Aberdeen All the Time—Lively Times in the Former Gretna Green of America

The quietude and serenity of this city is quite in contrast with the strenuous life of the dwellers in our neighboring village across the river.

In comparison Maysville has passed to a stage of ease and yellow leaf, having in a manner given up the frivolities and giddiness of evanescent and worldly things, and in its stead donned a cloak of humility and meekness—possibly doing penance in sack cloth and ashes for the past transgressions.

On the other hand Aberdeen is putting on metropolitan airs and is carrying on just as they do in large places.

High life and city ways will be the final undoing of the former Gretna Green of America if she continues to sail her social kite in an altitude it is now soaring.

Excitement has been rife in the town this week.

The first episode was that of a jealous husband trying to murder his wife, then a mad dog ran amok and held the town at its mercy until slain by the united efforts of forty well armed citizens.

Scarcely had the place regained its composure until it was again thrown into a state of nervous excitement by a mad and enraged woman going on a rampage and publicly cowhiding one of her own sex whom she accused of having traduced her good name.

Dr. Stanley M. Clark, formerly of this city, is ill at his home at Mt. Olivet, threatened with fever.

The Mt. Olivet Tribune Democrat reports the death of William Mayberry at Mayslick, after a few hours illness. It is said he had eaten nearly a can of peaches at supper and going up in town suddenly complained of a severe pain in the stomach. Returning to his home, he told his wife of his suffering and retired. Shortly afterward he began moaning and lighting a lamp his wife found him in a rigid condition, with eyes firmly set. A physician was quickly summoned but death had ensued.

END OF A ROMANCE

How the Yachtsman Lost the Girl.

"Another yachting romance ended, I see," remarked the old yachtsman, as he leaned over the veranda rail of the club house and watched a fine-looking girl step into a dingy.

"Why do you say 'ended'?" asked the other man. "Looks more like another romance begun. She's sailing on the Duro this season evidently."

"I said 'ended' because that's the girl who has turned Northam down," explained the yachtsman. "They were engaged, you know. Everything was fair weather. Not a dark cloud or squall in sight. But two weeks ago she struck and Northam is adrift."

"You see," he continued, as he watched the dingy slide alongside a white-hulled yacht, "Northam had just slapped a coat of paint on his boat, when who should show up at the club but this girl and two other girls. They knew it was early in the season, but they were just dying for a sail. Northam explained that he was awfully sorry but that it was a case of sitting on the veranda, as he had just painted his boat. Just then up luffs the owner of the Ferry. He offered to take them out and they went. Just as the Ferry was ready to get under way Dietrick hailed from the club. You know Dietrick and Northam have sailed together for years and they are the best sailors around here.

"Well, the Ferry took a course out into the lake. There was quite a sea running and the wind came in bunches. Everyone was having a good time, even if the owner of the Ferry was sailing his boat like an ice wagon. "Northam and Dietrick were really the only ones aboard who understood the game. When about five knots out, Northam says, the owner of the Ferry suddenly decided to come about or else he forgot the boat altogether while talking to the girls. Anyhow, the Ferry shot up into the wind for a second, the big boom swung inboard and hit one of the crew across the back. There was a splash—man overboard!

"A life ring was hanging to the cabin. Northam was standing in the cockpit near it. He handed it to Dietrick, who was just getting ready to give a pull on the main sheet. Giving him a shove, Northam yelled at him to jump overboard. And overboard Dietrick went.

"Northam said he knew that the owner of the Ferry didn't know what to do and would have tried to come about right there instead of keeping on until in just the right position to fling over or come about and then try to pick the men up. So he slammed the Ferry's owner up against the cabin and took the tiller.

"Say, you know it takes nerve to keep right on sailing away from a friend who has gone overboard, but Northam did it. When he started back a few minutes later he was able to luff up close to the two heads that bobbed among the waves. Well, he picked them up the first try.

"They got the two fellows aboard just in time, for Dietrick said he couldn't have held out much longer even with the help of the life ring, for the water was ice cold and he was just about frozen stiff.

"Now comes the funny part. While Northam was patting himself on the back for doing just the right thing—for he saved time by giving the life ring to Dietrick and making him get overboard—while he was explaining to the Ferry's owner that he simply had to sail the boat or his friend would have gone down—the girl was doing a lot of thinking on a different course. She had told her friends that Northam was the bravest sailor on the lake and had been in all kinds of storms. Well, she didn't say a word—not until they landed.

"Then when Northam said he guessed he would go home with her she said—right out loud so we could all hear—that she guessed he wouldn't. She said she didn't care to have another thing more to do with a man who would make his friend jump overboard to save another when he should have done it himself.

"Say, Northam was struck with all canvas up and he went down all the way. He didn't say a word. He just stood there and watched her walk away. Then he looked out across the harbor—just stood there and looked. "We tried to cheer him up—said the girl was probably excited and didn't understand that the Ferry crowd would never have been able to pick anybody up.

"Northam went out to see the girl that night and tried to explain, but it wasn't any use. He was a coward, she said. Now Northam is wondering whether he is or not.

"That's why I said another romance was ended."—Chicago Daily News.

Good Japanese Innovation.

An Austrian military organ draws attention to one of the minor details of the Japanese musketry practice during the late war which seems to have escaped notice in Europe. In European armies the question of a rifle rest for long range firing has led to many ingenious contrivances for devising tripod arrangements. The Japanese war department solved the difficulty in a much simpler but equally effective way. They just provided the soldier with a bag of stout cotton eight inches wide and 20 inches long, which he could carry in his cartridge case on the march, and on reaching the fighting line could in a minute stuff with earth or stones. The device gave amazing assistance in accuracy or rifle fire.—New Orleans Picayune.

GERMANTOWN MAIL

Unsatisfactory Service Since Star Route Was Discontinued

Broken Chronicle.

The Star Route, between Maysville and Germantown has been discontinued, and an effort is being made to get the Postoffice Department to send Rural Route Carrier Carlisle from Angusta to Germantown with a mail pouch, thus furnishing citizens of that vicinity with their mail two or three hours sooner than they receive it now. As it is now, Carrier Carlisle goes within a mile of the Germantown Postoffice, and he could easily deliver a letter pouch there by 11:15 each morning.

Under the present system all letters for Germantown and vicinity have to go around by the way of Brooksville, and from that point to Germantown by stage line. On his return trip Mr. Carlisle could bring in mail from Germantown in time to catch the 3:45 train each afternoon.

Under the present arrangement mail has to lay over until the following day.

WINTER'S

CASHIER,

MR. JOS. GOODPASTER,

PUBLISHES A LETTER

Just received from Mr. Winter. Mr. Goodpaster asks the buying public to watch this space for interesting things.

GRAND RATIDS, MICH., }
July 26th, 1907.

Mr. Jos. Goodpaster, Maysville, Ky. —Dear Joe: Arrived O. K. and haven't lost a minute. Leave here tomorrow for Chicago and other points.

I have bought quite heavily. My intentions, as you are aware, were to buy lightly, but found such delightful bargains that I "turned myself loose," and you realize just what that means.

Many factories are cleaning up. Such bargains I have never seen.

In some cases I have obtained as high as a 33½% discount. I know not where we will secure storage for these heavy purchases. Our warehouse won't begin to hold them!

July styles are very beautiful, harmonious designs, in superb finishes. The entire output of many factories is sold. We will be unable to duplicate on these splendid styles. However, our trade will be taken care of. As before stated, I have bought quite heavily. The large Michigan factories know that Maysville is on the map!

There is a furniture exposition on at Chicago, and I shall go there before I return and endeavor to buy the finest samples. If successful, we will have some specials to offer our trade that will make the most indolent "sit up and take notice."

Have any of my New York purchases arrived yet? If so, I know that you are happy. Certainly my New York purchases were very happy ones.

Never in my 21 years merchandising have I seen such glorious bargains as appear in the New York purchases.

I advise you to put on a special sale at once. Move out some of the stock now in the house regardless of price, for I am fearful that we will be unable to secure warehouse room for these great shipments that will begin to pour into Maysville.

See Messrs. Short & Kain and tell them to rush the completion of our new furniture car. We will need all three of our wagons.

Look for me when you see me. Can't give you an address, as I am on the move.

Regards to all the boys at the store. Your friend,
JOHN I. WINTER.

Most physics cause chronic constipation—or worse

or worse

Chronic constipation, piles, appendicitis and other such intestinal afflictions are more often caused by improper physics than anything else.

The average physic, whether it is in the form of a water, candy, pellet, or pill, is intended to quickly and unnaturally move the bowels. Such an unnatural treatment so shocks and weakens the intestinal muscles that the continued treatment of stronger and stronger physics becomes necessary. This produces chronic constipation.

Piles and appendicitis are caused by the violent manner in which these explosive drugs attack the intestines.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

in the ordinary sense is not a cathartic. It is a laxative but acts differently from all other preparations. It contains great tonic properties, which strengthen instead of weaken the intestinal muscles. It is pleasant to take, does not gripe or cause pain, and never creates a necessity for the continual use of any physic. All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

NEW JUDGE

Will Be Asked For By Caleb Powers—Conference of Attorneys Today

There will be a conference of the Attorneys for Caleb Powers at Georgetown today, when it is thought an affidavit will be prepared by which Powers hopes to have Judge James E. Robbins of Mayfield, the special Judge appointed to hear the case, vacate the bench on the ground that he was unfair in his rulings at the former trial at which he presided.

Col. W. C. Owens of Louisville and Samuel M. Wilson of Lexington held a short conference with Powers Thursday going over some routine matters. These Attorneys will represent Powers in the trial which is to be called on Monday. Judge Jerre R. Morton of Lexington will not be in the case, since his time has been so taken up with other business that he did not feel able to go into the trial at this time.

Judge Sims, who is Powers' leading Attorney said that he would rather go through a battle than to undertake the trial of this case through August, but that if the Commonwealth was ready they would go into it and fight it through.

Col. Sims has been at Dawson Springs and had to go to his home to attend to some business before he could attend the conference. He says the witnesses have all been summoned and he presumes that the defense will be ready.

He has had no information as to who will take the place of Senator C. J. Bronston for the Goebel relatives, nor if it has been possible to locate all the Commonwealth witnesses.

Powers appeared in good health and seemed to be glad of the near approach of another chance at liberty.

AT MAYSVILLE AUGUST 29th

Convention Will Meet to Nominate a Republican Candidate For Appellate Judge

The question of nominating a candidate to oppose Judge John M. Lassing in the Sixth Appellate District of Kentucky has been put up to a Republican convention to be held in Maysville, Ky., on August 29th.

The District Republican Committee held a meeting in Covington Thursday, with 14 of the 15 counties represented. Chairman J. B. Bennett of Greenup county presided. The only question before the Committee was that of nominating a candidate for Appellate Judge in the Sixth District, the sentiment of the Committee being overwhelmingly against such action. No direct vote was taken on this proposition, but several of the members put themselves on record as opposing any nomination.

Chairman Richard P. Ernst of the State Committee took a rap at several Republicans who charged at the city mass convention held in Covington last Saturday that he and Judge Lassing had entered into a deal whereby Judge Lassing, the Democratic nominee for Appellate Judge, should have no opposition. Ernst branded the statements as absolute falsehoods, and branded those responsible for the reports of a deal as liars. He said the charges had been made for some ulterior motive and not for the good of the party.

The Committee adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That a mass convention of the Republicans be held in each county in this (the Sixth) Appellate Court District of Kentucky upon the 24th day of August, 1907, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to a District Convention, which District Convention shall be held upon Thursday, the 29th day of August, 1907, at 1 o'clock p. m., in the city of Maysville, to take such action in reference to a Republican nominee for Judge of the Court of Appeals of this district as it may deem proper.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health. The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Picard's Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chafing, and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

The Cincinnati papers published columns reporting the operations of the alleged Black Hand Societies throughout the world, citing the murderous attack by a foreigner named Naoum upon one Thomas James at Shanahan's railroad camp below Maysville. The would-be assassin is now in jail here. The Times-Star says that after the Macedonians found that the Greeks were pushing the prosecution against Naoum orders were sent to Bulgaria and the wounded Greek's aged father was set upon in his Macedonian home and killed. The murderers then cut his body into four pieces and hanged them from trees.

This rate bill fight is going to cause a political upheaval from one end of the country to the other if there is any attempt at Federal interference with the States in clamping the 2-cent passenger fare bill on the railroads. The people are determined to force the issue and one man should never be permitted to overturn the will of the people of an entire state.

WILLSON'S OPENING GUN

To Be Fired at Maysville, His Home Town, August 19th. Every Republican on the State Ticket to Be Present

LOUISVILLE, July 26—Augustus E. Willson, Republican nominee for Governor, is taking a good rest before he enters upon his canvass of the state, which will be opened on August 19th at Maysville. In the meantime Willson is preparing his speech.

Every Republican on the state ticket will be present at the Maysville meeting. It is probable that Judge James Breathitt and Dr. Ben L. Bruner will also make addresses there, and it would not be at all surprising if former Governor W. O. Bradley put in an appearance and made one of his old-fashioned, rousing campaign speeches.

Bradley is a power on the stump, and was never more enthusiastic over the chances for Republican success than at present. Whether he goes to Maysville or not he will be in the campaign from start to finish, and is now one of the most constant counselors of the Republican Campaign Committee.

TWICE-TOLO TESTIMONY.

Maysville People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Maysville testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Maysville who suffer from bad backs and kidney ailments. Let any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Maysville people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent. Here's a Maysville case:
Henry Bertram, shoemaker, of 27 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"I believe everybody in Maysville has read in the papers the testimony I gave in March, 1900, about Doan's Kidney Pills. For I have been asked again and again by residents of this town if that statement were true. For the benefit of persons who may now be suffering from forms of kidney trouble I repeat my testimony. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I had suffered for some time with backache and a tired feeling and having aching in and about the kidneys. Being a shoemaker, I thought my trouble was caused by my work for every time I took cold it settled in my back. Doan's Kidney Pills quickly rid me of the trouble and never, from that time to this, have I had any cause to complain of my back or kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills perform exactly what they promise, and I will say that in my opinion there is no remedy for kidney disorders equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
